This matter came on for hearing on September 10, 2008 on Defendant's duly-noticed motion to stay these proceedings and all related discovery pending mandatory binding arbitration. The court has read the papers submitted in support and in opposition to the motion, and has considered the arguments of counsel and the authorities cited to the court.

The Court has concluded that this matter should be ordered to arbitration, and that the parties will not be permitted any written discovery or depositions pursuant to the agreement between the parties. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED THAT

1. The motion of Defendant is GRANTED.
